

Date: Sunday, August 6th

Location: Peac Dale Village Green

Speaker: Jessica Wilson, South Kingstown Public Library
Local History Librarian

Lecture: "Life, Time, and The Weaver" by Daniel Chester French

The talk will highlight features and history of The Weaver, a 1919 bronze sculpture on the grounds of the Peace Dale Library. It was commissioned by Caroline Hazard as a memorial to her father and her two brothers, and created by Daniel Chester French, best known as sculptor of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C.

Jessica Wilson has been a Reference and Local History Librarian at Peace Dale Library since 2002. She manages the Library's Rhode Island History and Digital Collections, presents local history programming, prepares digital and printed materials, and offers local history research appointments. She created a digital exhibit on The Weaver and a Timeline of South Kingstown history for the Town's 300th Anniversary.

