South Kingstown Police Department is hiring Open house scheduled for Tuesday, July 12th

The South Kingstown Police Department is recruiting new and experienced police officers to join the department and will hold an open house on Tuesday, July 12, 2022, from 11 a.m. until 7 p.m. Interested applicants can stop by and talk to the recruitment team, get a tour of the station, and learn about working as an officer in South Kingstown.

“South Kingstown is a destination department and we’re looking for great candidates to add to our team,” said Chief Matthew Moynihan. “Our department prides itself on our community engagement, accountability, and professionalism and we love what we do. We are fortunate to serve in a beautiful community with plenty of year-round activity and opportunities for growth and advancement.”

To be considered for a position with the South Kingstown Police Department, applicants must be a U.S. citizen; be 18 years of age or older; possess a high school diploma or equivalent; possess a valid driver’s license; be able to speak, read and write the English language; be able to pass a physical examination given by a physician, a physical fitness/ agility examination, a written examination, an oral examination, a swim proficiency test, a drug screen, a psychological examination and a comprehensive background investigation.

Experienced officers must have graduated from the Rhode Island Municipal Police Academy, Providence Police Academy or Rhode Island State Police Academy. Out-of-state experienced officers will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis but will be required to become Rhode Island POST certified before a fulltime offer of employment is made.
