

South Kingstown Library Teen Volunteers

Calling student in grades 7-12! We are offering volunteer hours for book reviews!

Have you recently read a book you couldn't put down? Is there a book you read months ago, but you can't stop thinking about it? How about a book that you felt could have been better, and you have been wanting to get those thoughts off of your chest? Write it up in a book review using the form below, and we will feature it on the library website!

To ensure you are eligible for volunteer hours, please review the following guidelines:

- You must be in grades 7-12
- Reviews must be at least two paragraphs, and at least 250 words
- No spoilers!
- Be engaging and have FUN – write what you would want to read!
- Follow the basic template found in the article How To Write a Book Review by Joanna Cutrara

Email your review to our Youth and Teen Services Librarian at bfong@skpl.org. Please allow 5-7 business days for a confirmation email. If your review follows the guidelines listed above, it will be posted to the library website on our Teen Book Reviews page, and will list your first name and grade at the end of the review.

Once the review is approved, you will be eligible for 1 hour of volunteering per review.

Please contact bfong@skpl.org at least 5 days before you need to turn in your hours in order to validate volunteer hours through your school or service organization.
